North Carolina Operation Lifesaver is strongly encouraging high schools to ask that no photos be published of students posing on or near railroad tracks. This action is not only illegal, but can prove deadly. Jack Britt High School is supporting this. These types of photos will NOT be published in our yearbook.

We will also not publish any photos that display weapons or any inappropriate material.

Senior Ad Deadline – The last day to submit and pay for a senior ad is Tuesday, November 21st or until sold out. Ads must be paid in full, and NO senior ads will be accepted after this date.

Please note that the submission of a baby picture or the ordering of a senior ad does not confirm the order of a yearbook!

** Please remember that the Yearbook operates on rigid printing deadlines which forces us to allow NO EXCEPTIONS to the above dates. We cannot accept anything after the posted due dates!
