CLASSROOM NEWS

We are officially in our 5th week of kindergarten and it is so hard to believe! Please continue to have your student to school on time. Also, please remember to dress your child for the weather but remember fall weather goes up and down in temperature.

The first progress reports have come out, please remember to keep studying hard so your student can move forward to be successful.

We are always available via clasdojo for any questions you may have.

Ms. Hayes and Mrs. Smith
