Cumberland County Schools' 2022 Graduates are Confident, Competitive and Life-Ready!

Fayetteville, N.C. – Starting next week, Cumberland County Schools' (CCS) Class of 2022 will walk across the stage at the Crown Coliseum with everything they need to be capable, confident and successful in life. These soon-to-be graduates are bright and ambitious students who are planning to attend some of the top colleges and universities, serve in the military or begin their careers.

Graduation ceremonies will begin Thursday, May 26, with the final ceremony taking place on Tuesday, June 7. For the full graduation schedule, parking information and answers to frequently asked questions, visit the district's 2022 Graduation Website: www.graduation.ccs.k12.nc.us. In addition, all ceremonies will be streamed live at <http://live.crowncomplexnc.com/>.

CCS invites the community to celebrate these life-ready students as they begin their next chapter!

Each year, CCS names a graduating senior at each high school as a Standout Senior. Starting tomorrow, Wednesday, May 18, the district will begin sharing the stories of CCS' 2022 Standout Seniors, a handful of exceptionally hard-working students who have overcome incredible odds to graduate. Watch the district's social media pages and visit the 2022 CCS Graduation Website to see and learn more about these successful students. The district will release a few videos each day leading up to next week's graduation ceremonies. See a preview of the 17 Standout Seniors below!
