Cumberland County Schools to Reopen Choice Program Application Window The district to accept additional applications for select 2022-2023 Choice Programs

Fayetteville, N.C. – Cumberland County Schools' (CCS) Choice Program application window is scheduled to reopen for select programs and grade levels beginning Tuesday, May 31, 2022. The district is reopening the application window to consider additional applicants for programs with available space.

Parents and families can consider the following schools and programs during the upcoming application window:

School Name (Grade Level Accepted):

- Cumberland Academy (K-5) Virtual School
- Cumberland Academy (6-12) Virtual School
- Massey Hill Classical High School (9-12)
- Montclair Elementary School (Kindergarten Only) - 50/50 Immersion Program (Spanish)
- William H. Owen Elementary School (Kindergarten Only) - Language Immersion (Spanish)
- Reid Ross Classical School (6-12) - Year-Round School
- Seventy-First Classical Middle School (6-8)

The upcoming application window will remain open until August 1, 2022, to allow time for processing and notification prior to the start of the 2022-2023 school year.

The district is dedicated to building positive relationships with students from all walks of life, engaging parents as partners and serving the interests of children and the goals of parents. CCS is proud of the diverse Choice Programs offered throughout the district. All of CCS' schools offer high-quality learning experiences. CCS Choice Programs take that excellence and offer tailored experiences to your child's interests and the best ways in which they learn.
