

CCS Graduates are Confident, Competitive, and Ready for a Career, College and Life.

Contact:
Renarta C. Moyd
Communications Manager
Communications & Community Engagement
Cumberland County Schools
Email: renartac@ccs.k12.nc.us

For Immediate Release:
June 7, 2022

62 Seniors Graduate Confident, Competitive and Life-Ready

Reid Ross Classical High School celebrates the graduating Class of 2022

Fayetteville, N.C. – Cumberland County Schools (CCS) is proud to announce that 62 seniors received their diplomas during their graduation ceremony on Tuesday, June 7.

Faculty, staff and students from Reid Ross Classical High School (RRCHS) and their guests gathered in the Crown Coliseum in Fayetteville, NC. Together, they celebrated these confident, competitive and life-ready seniors' achievements.

RRCHS Salutatorian Michael Techuk said he feels that the achievements of his classmates will be known far and wide. "I wholeheartedly believe that each and every one of us will have our names known to the world for the great accomplishments we are fated to achieve and have our titles emblazoned amongst the stars."

As the Class of 2022 moves forward in life, RRCHS Principal Larry Parker shared the following words of wisdom: "Remember that it is your life. You're the one who must live it, and you are the one who must make the choices that will bring you true happiness."

Special moments from the ceremony were captured. Visit the district's Facebook page to see the most up-to-date pictures. To access photos from today's graduation ceremony, click here. To view other CCS' Graduation 2022 highlights, visit graduation.ccs.k12.nc.us.

Wow! Did You Know?

- RRCHS senior Maliyah Singleton received $10,000 as a State Employees Credit Union People Helping People winner.
- RRCHS Orchestra student Maceo Fowler, who will attend Penn State and major in Viola Performance, has received a full-ride through the Bunton

Walters Fellowship.

- CCS Standout Senior Miles Fowler, a RRCHS Orchestra student, will attend UNC-Greensboro and double major in Music Performance and Composition. He received an $11,000 music scholarship from UNC-G, the Spartans Scholarship valued at $6,800, the Chancellor's Scholarship for $7,200, and the School of Music Scholarship valued at $2,750, annually.

- Graduating senior Colman Bennett was awarded a $25,000 Momentum Scholarship to attend Full Sail University.
- The Robert H. Short Memorial Scholarship, which is awarded by Cumberland Community Foundation, Inc., for up to $7,500 per year, was given to RRCHS Band student Jazlyn Jones.
- Graduating seniors Mya Colvin and Miles Fowler were accepted into the NC Governor's School during their high school careers.

Words From the Valedictorian

RRCHS Valedictorian
Ninoshka Tjonajong

“The ability to face what comes our way, no matter how unpredictable it may be, and use it to make us stronger, defines who we are.”

Reid Ross Classical Graduation 2022

###

2465 Gillespie Street,
Fayetteville, NC 28306
910.678.2300

@CumberlandCoSch

<http://www.graduation.ccs.k12.nc.us/>