

MEDIA ADVISORY

Contact: Renarta Moyd
Communications Manager
Email: renartac@ccs.k12.nc.us
2465 Gillespie Street
Fayetteville, NC 28306

July 20, 2022

Duo Events Focus on Students 'Dropping Back In' School & Their Wellness

Cumberland County Schools working to re-connect students to education while promoting the importance of wellness

WHAT:

Get Back In School Launch Party AND
the Speak On It! Teen Wellness Fair 2022

WHEN

Thursday, July 21, 2022
9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

WHERE:

Alger B. Wilkins High School
1429 Skibo Road
Fayetteville, NC 28303

WHY:

To encourage students who have dropped out to re-enroll in school and to promote the importance of physical, emotional and mental wellness among teens

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- Counselors will be available to review transcripts and to recommend courses needed for graduation.
- Community agencies, career vendors and school social workers will be available to provide information about resources for childcare, transportation, employment, family support and more.

- Wellness counselors will be on hand to offer teen wellness tips, community health resources and the chance to win Apple AirPods and JBL Speakers.
- Students will also be able to learn more about Alger B. Wilkins High School and other academic/support services that are offered by the district.
- For more information, contact Renarta Moyd in the CCS Communications & Community Engagement Department via email (renartac@ccs.k12.nc.us).

###

